

Kathleen Day
Washington, DC

202-236-4109

Kathleen.Day@jhu.edu

Summary

Professor, author and veteran business reporter/editor in print, electronic media.

Education

MBA, Finance New York University Stern School of Business
MS Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism
BA Bryn Mawr College

Experience

Johns Hopkins University Carey School of Business (2013-present)

Full-time lecturer Financial crises; writing and crisis communication; ethics; corporate governance.

♦ Author, Yale University Press: Broken Bargain: Bankers, Bailouts and the Struggle to Tame Wall Street, 2019. Kathleenday.com

♦ Online course creator: One in the history of financial crises, one in business communication

♦ Contributing writer/editor (2013- Present) Currently Washington Post, Yale University Press, American Historical Society; previously, USA Today, Ozy.com

♦ Speaker Brookings Institute; Woodrow Wilson Center; C-Span, among others

♦ Dean's Award for Faculty Excellence, 2016

The Washington Post

Contributor: (2018 to present)

Full-time Business reporter (1986-2008): Banking, financial services, accounting scandals, housing and securities markets, 9/11 terrorist financing, corporate governance, healthcare, prescription drugs. Regular market reports on WTOP, guest on Diane Rehm, CNBC, C-Span, PBS.

Center for Responsible Lending (2008-2013) Non-profit, non-partisan consumer finance research.

Spokesman, editor, writer. Regular radio, TV guest, including on Diane Rehm, CNBC, Fox News, Bloomberg TV, Al Jazeera. Quoted in New York Times, Washington Post, USA Today, Associated Press.

Los Angeles Times (1983-1986)

Business reporter

USA Today (1982-1983)

Business reporter, start-up staff

Fellowships, additional activities and experience

- Instructor (2016 to present) Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth, Program on business entrepreneurship for middle school students.
- Author, "S&L Hell: The People and Politics Behind the $1 Trillion Savings-and-Loan Scandal," W.W. Norton publisher, 1993.
New York Times "Notable Book," and Business Week "Top 10" business book of the year. Kirkus star review. One of four finalists for The New York Public Library Helen Bernstein Book Award for Excellence in Journalism. Based on a New Republic cover story. Required text in graduate business programs at Georgetown and Johns Hopkins.
- 2005 one of four finalists Gerald Loeb Awards.
- Adjunct professor, Georgetown University (2008 to 2013).
Created ethics course based on financial crises in the United States since 1929. Awarded excellence in teaching award, 2008.
- Kaiser Family Foundation Fellow studying prescription drug pricing.
- PEW Fellow teaching business journalism in formerly communist countries.
- 2011 Robert F. Kennedy Book and Journalism Awards judge.