

CAREER ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Career Advisory Committee partners with the Carey Career Development Office (CDO) to offer feedback on programming, provide insights on industry trends, and participate in key events. Help improve the Johns Hopkins Carey Business School by advancing our students' readiness to join a competitive, global employment market.

What are the Benefits?

- » Connect: Build relationships with students, staff, faculty and companies in Baltimore and beyond.
- » Contribute: Influence program development as the Carey Business School grows and evolves.
- » Promote: Increase visibility of your organization's brand on campus.
- » Expand: Deepen your knowledge of the Carey Business School and the Johns Hopkins University, America's oldest research institution.
- » Acknowledgement: Receive recognition for your efforts.
- » Learn: Receive the benefit of one complementary Carey open-enrollment Executive Education course during your tenure on the committee.

What is the Commitment?

Minimum of 20 Hours over 2 Years

- » Serve as an ambassador within your organization, partnering with Career Development to connect Carey students to full-time job and internship opportunities, and to prepare students for the interview process.
- » Attend bi-annual Advisory Committee meetings (Jan and June):
 - » Consult CDO Network lead(s) on relevant functional area/industry updates and trends.
 - » Recommend professional organizations or resources to CDO Network.
- » Participate in CDO programming, as available, throughout the year:
 - Industry day
 - Roundtables
 - Career fair
 - Employer appreciation events
 - Case interviewing
 - Information sessions
 - Treks
 - Coffee chats
 - And more!
- » Help guide programming by connecting with Career Development staff member(s) to:
 - Provide industry insights and trends that inform programming.
 - Facilitate connections to industry contacts for recruiting and career preparation activities.
 - Recommend relevant professional associations and events to increase Carey's presence, brand, and connection opportunities.
- » Two-year term

Questions?

Connect with Liz Matthews, ematthews@jhu.edu

JOHNS HOPKINS
CAREY BUSINESS SCHOOL