

Baltimore

39.2904° N, 76.6122° W

My favorite way to start my day at Carey Business School is a morning run along the water and up Federal Hill for incredible views -Jill Green, Associate Dean for Education and

B Visit one of the most exception collections of Asian art in North America at the Walters Art Museum in Mt. Vernon.

Stop by the farmers' market downtown to find tasty local treats. You won't want to miss Migrash Farm milled grains for baking and breakfast.

D The Johns Hopkins George Peabody Library is a beautiful study spot just a mile from the Harbor East campus.

E There are severa historic food markets in Baltimor including the Mt. Vernon Marketplace, home of the Local Oyster.

With Johns Hopkins neighboring location so close, it is easy to tap into university and hospital events.

Explore Baltimore's 250+ neighborhoods with Johns Hopkins Carey Business School at the center of it all.

Charles Village – Visit our Homewood campus and the internationally renowned Baltimore Museum of Art.

Federal Hill – Just a short walk or water taxi ride from our Baltimore campus, explore Federal Hill's historic neighborhood. Walk just a few more minutes to Ravens' M&T Bank Stadium and Orioles' Camden Yards.

Fells Point – Walk along cobblestone streets in Baltimore's oldest neighborhood. And explore eclectic restaurants and shops including the Broadway Market.

Harbor East – Home to our Baltimore campus, walk or bike along the waterfront promenade to other waterfront neighborhoods.

Inner Harbor – Sightsee in the heart of downtown while visiting the Maryland Science Center and the National Aquarium.

Mt. Vernon – The cultural center of the city, Mt. Vernon is home to the Johns Hopkins George Peabody Library, the Meyerhoff Symphony Hall and the iconic Washington Monument. Visit during the summer to experience Artscape, the nation's largest national arts festival. Catch a train from Penn Station and arrive at the D.C. campus in about an hour.

Patterson Park – Explore the 137-acre park of the same name. Spend a day at the swimming pool, dog park, or on the running trails, tennis courts, athletic fields, and more.