

A Smithsonian is the world's largest museum, education, and research complex and it is based right along on the National Mall just a short walk from the Carey campus.

B Eat and drink your way through this food hub. With over 48 diverse food vendors on-site and over 15,000 visitors each weekend, you won't run out of options.

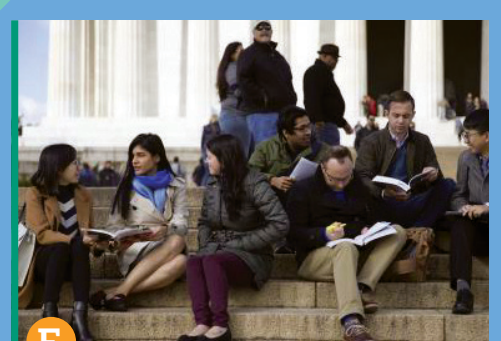

C Run or bike along the Anacostia 20 mile path. Visit Billy Goat Trail in Great Falls Park for another great trail.

D Catch a train from Union Station and arrive at the Baltimore campus in less than an hour.

E Enjoy a Sunday morning at the FRESHFARM Dupont Circle Market. Shop for produce, baked goods, and so much more.

F Walk to the 160+ free-to-visit national landmarks, monuments, and memorials just around the corner from campus.

Explore Washington D.C.'s 130+ neighborhoods with Johns Hopkins Carey Business School at the center of it all.

Adams Morgan – Visit the African American Civil War Museum during the day, and enjoy live music in one of the many jazz venues along famed U-street at night.

Georgetown – Spend all day exploring Georgetown's historic mansions, shopping, and waterfront views. Stop at Baked & Wired for coffee and a sweet treat.

Capitol Hill – Home to the U.S. Capitol and the Supreme Court, Capitol Hill is the largest historic residential neighborhood in Washington, D.C.

National Mall – A quick metro ride from campus, the National Mall is home to the Smithsonian Institution and other free museums. From the National Museum of the American Indian and the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum, to the National Museum of American History and more, you'll learn something new each visit.

Chinatown/Penn Quarter – Grab dim sum and explore the National Portrait Gallery before a Capitals hockey game.

Dupont Circle – The home base of our D.C. campus, you're just minutes from Embassy Row and some of the nation's most prestigious think tanks.

ANACOSTIA

DULLES INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT
25 miles from campus

REAGAN NATIONAL AIRPORT
4 miles from campus