

Assurance of Learning Program Learning Objectives – MS Business Analytics and Risk Management

Program Goals	Program Learning Objectives
Apply core concepts and methods to solve problems in business analytics and risk management	1.1 Students will develop descriptive analysis skills for business decision-making.
	1.2 Students will develop predictive analysis skills for business decision-making.
	1.3 Students will develop prescriptive analysis skills for business decision-making.
	1.4 Students will recommend strategies for better risk management through business analytics.
Function effectively in complex business organizations	2.1 Students will develop modeling skills that distill the trade-offs inherent in business or societal challenges into analytics questions.
	2.2 Students will apply analysis skills to go from raw data to actionable insights that improve business and societal outcomes.
Communicate effectively in business settings	Students will build convincing narratives for business recommendations, backed with data.